PAUL REVIERE, Dean of Admissions and Registrar

In Dedication

In appreciation for the guidance and friendship so freely given, we, the Nocatula staff of 1967, honor Dean Paul Reviere by dedicating to him this our annual.

Dean Reviere caught on a routine trip back to his office with a student transcript.

One of the many jobs of the registrar is to counsel and advise students as to their academic requirements. Here Dean Reviere fulfills this phase of his work with Charles Elliott.

All-Sing

Rufus Triplett sings "Deep River"

Alpha Xis—the champs

Howard Laymon dedicates All-Sing to Chaplain Lewis.

Pi Kaps, singing medley from "South Pacific", win large group competition.

This year's All-Sing proved to be the best ever. Emcee Tom Gutridge kept the show moving between performances by the Independents, the Alpha Xi Delta, Kappa Delta, and Sigma Kappa sororities, and by the Phi Sigma Kappa, Pi Kappa Phi, and Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternities.

All-Sing 1967 was dedicated to Chaplain Doug Lewis for his outstanding contribution to Wesleyan.

The Alpha Xi Delta sorority won first place in both the small and large group competition among women.

The Pi Kappa Phi fraternity also walked off with two trophies, winning first place in the small and large group competition among the fraternities.

The Alpha Xis singing their way into the winner's position in small group competition.

Strains of the "Riddle Song" by the Independents.

The Pi Kapp's small group makes a clean sweep.

Margaret—queen of the gents.

Gent's Night

Candidates for Gent's Night Queen and their escorts: Mary Ann Masters, Phil Ensminger, Brenda George (last year's queen), Roy Sewell, Carol Perkins, Jim Howard, Margaret Edds, and Charles Lenox.

Gent's Night is still a relatively new function at TWC. The dance is sponsored by the Sophomore class. This year Margaret Edds was awarded the title of Gent's Night Queen. Margaret is a member of Kappa Delta Sorority.

Mr. Ugly

Mr. Ugly reigns from his throne.

The Mr. Ugly Dance is an annual affair which is sponsored by the Junior class. This year's Mr. Ugly, Alan Cornelius, was selected by receiving the most votes, which cost one cent each. The other Mr. Ugly candidates were Bill Buss and Fitz Hiltzheimer.

The newly crowned king is escorted by Miss Beverly Taylor.

*Spring
Show
1966*

The Spring Show of 1966 was presented by the Tennessee Wesleyan College choir under the direction of Andrew Harper, choir director. This presentation of "Bye Bye Birdie" was colorful, enjoyable, and very well performed.

Pictured above are some of the scenes from the presentation of "Bye Bye Birdie".

It was a very good year . . . Another year full of joys and sorrows . . . work and play . . . brotherly love and common effort. President Griffith brought the bacon home from the SPE Academy . . . Tennessee Delta, one of the six outstanding chapters in the nation. Shelley—one of five in nation to receive Sig Ep scholarship. Our house . . . renovated just in time for brand new pledge class which promptly wrecked the place to show their spirit. Golden Heart Girl—Gail Thornburg . . . with Queens of Hearts—Susan Blackburn, LeAnne Brown, Diane Coffey, and Margaret Edds . . . Lockerby—back for another year, this time as SGA President . . . Our championship football team, undefeated this year in regular season play, upset in the tournament by the Sig Ep second team. The "Roaring 20's" party—a smash hit . . . Mike Bowling and a Brain Bowl victory . . . then on to a Greek Weekend Trophy, our first. . . All-Sing victory again . . . also scholarship award . . . Add this and you have the Fraternity of the Year . . . Yes, it was a very, very good year.

The highest honor for a male student on the Wesleyan campus is to be tapped by the Delta Kappa Honor Society.

The threefold purpose of Delta Kappa is stated as: "First, to recognize men who have attained a high standard of efficiency in collegiate activities and to inspire others to strive for conspicuous attainments along similar lines; second, to bring together the most representative men in all phases of collegiate life and thus to create an organization which will help to mould the sentiment of the institution on questions of local and intercollegiate interest; and third, to bring together members of the faculty and student body of the institution on a basis of mutual interest and understanding.

Delta Kappa recognizes and encourages achievement in five major phases of campus life—scholarship; athletics; student government, social and religious affairs; publications; and speech, music, drama, and the other arts. Student membership is limited to three per cent of the male enrollment of the junior and senior classes.

A black and white photograph of a cluttered desk. In the foreground, a typewriter is open with a sheet of paper in it. To the left of the typewriter is a white coffee mug. The desk is covered with various papers, some of which are stacked high in the background. The lighting is dramatic, with strong shadows and highlights.
